A Christian Community Must Reflect the Nature of God

THE PRAYERS OF JESUS

How varied were the prayers of Christ! He prayed for all kinds of people, and over everything.

He prayed in the great moments of life

He prayed for the little children, who were His concern
(Matthew 19:13).

He prayed for others by name
(Luke 22:32)

There are three things an intercessor must remember if his prayers for others are to prevail -

1. He must have a sincere desire for the highest interests for those for whom he prays (spiritual as well as material).
2. He must have the utmost confidence in divine promise and sufficiency to meet the need.
3. He must hold himself in readiness to cooperate in action as an outcome of his intercession. Christ certainly fulfilled all three requirements as He prayed, and still prays, so effectively for others (John 17; Hebrews 7:25).

He prayed with others, which is a habit we should cultivate. Mutual prayer at home or church, solves problems, cements friendship, sweetens the spirit, gladdens the heart of God (Malachi 3:16).

PRAY

Give thanks for the enormous privilege of prayer. Thank God for the access we have to his throne through the mercy of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Confess the various ways you fail in prayer and put your trust in Jesus for forgiveness. Ask God to so transform your heart and mind that you will pray to him with renewed strength and purpose.

Use the pattern of the Lord’s Prayer to pray.

If your child has developed or been diagnosed since their initial enrolment, then you should make sure that the office is aware of the circumstances.

A Time for Everything

There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven
For every thing there is a season and a time to every matter under the Heaven

A time to be born and a time to die; a time to plant and a time to pluck up what is planted.

Ecclesiastes 3
